Announcing the New Franklin

The new Franklin catalog replaces Classic Franklin, the Penn Libraries' catalog since the 1990s.

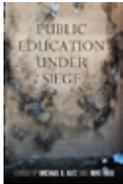

You will find that the new Franklin catalog offers many features not available in Classic Franklin, including easy browsing and limiting by format, location, and language; color-coded availability status; images of book covers; and RSS feeds and stable URLs to capture searches.

Classic Franklin will continue to be available for the time being; a link will appear on the Penn Libraries homepage and in the bottom right-hand corner of all new Franklin screens.

To learn more about new Franklin, see the new Franklin User Guide
